That Day

Week 4 – Why the Wait?

Danny Anderson

June 5, 2011

So then each of us will give an account of himself to God.—
Romans 14:12

For the Lord himself will descend from heaven with a cry of command, with the voice of an archangel, and with the sound of the trumpet of God. And the dead in Christ will rise first. Then we who are alive, who are left, will be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air, and so we will always be with the Lord.—1 Thess. 4:16, 17

Why the wait?

The performance review of your life

His delay is to give people full opportunity to be saved.

Look on our Lord's patience as the opportunity he is giving you to be saved... — 2 Peter 3:15 (GNT)

“Regard his delay in coming to judge the world, not as evidence that he never will come, but as a proof of his desire that we should be saved.” Albert Barnes

This is a true saying, to be completely accepted and believed: Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners. — 1 Timothy 1:15 (GNT)

What should we do?

If you are not a Christian, receive Christ as your Savior.

That day is a day of judgment, today is a day to be saved.

WEEKEND SERVICE NOTES

The Lord is not slow to fulfill his promise as some count slowness, but is patient toward you, not wishing that any should perish, but that all should reach repentance. —
2 Peter 3:9

(God) desires all people to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth. — 1 Timothy 2:4

If you are a Christian, join God on His Relentless pursuit.

And he made from one man every nation of mankind to live on all the face of the earth, having determined allotted periods and the boundaries of their dwelling place, that they should seek God, in the hope that they might feel their way toward him and find him. —Acts 17:26, 27
